Quality Welding Inspector

Unit Engineers & Constructors Ltd have an immediate position available for a Quality Welding Inspector.

Job Overview

- To provide timely Quality support to all internal and external customers
- To ensure Quality requirements are identified, assessed, and managed for all activities in order to ensure that a safe and high-quality execution and delivery is achieved.

Location:

UECL Humberside Office

Job Type:

Full time, Permanent

Please send all CVs to CV@unitbirwelco.com

Reports to the Quality Manager

Liases with:

- Project Managers
- Workshop Manager
- Supervisors

Main Responsibilities:

- Visually examine welds
- Interpret and sentence radiographs
- Co-ordinate and witness pressure testing activities
- Carry out NDT requests and Co-ordinate NDT subcontractors
- Review and control NDT/PWHT procedures, reports, and NDT qualifications
- Compile and control data dossiers, Quality packs
- Witness and record POR's
- Control, Maintain and update calibration records
- Witness welder qualification tests and arrange supporting NDT
- Mark up and distribute isometrics to production
- Distribute weld procedures to workshop and site
- Write and submit technical queries
- Mechanically punch/ walk the line on site works
- Order and maintain a register of joint validation tags and crimps
- Review and log Coating reports/procedures
- Liaise with client inspectors
- Review, update and maintain consumable certificates and supporting database

Qualifications & Experience:

- Recognised Welding Inspector Qualification CSWIP 3.1 or 3.2 or PCN Level 2
- Radiograph Interpretation PCN Level 2
- Proficient/Experience in ASME & British Standards (B31.3, ASME IX, API 653, BSEN 1090, 15614, 9606)
- Excellent administrative and time management skills
- Experience of advising line managers in area of expertise and enforcing policies and procedures
- Ability to build and facilitate strong working relationships with management, management contacts and employees at all levels while presenting a professional attitude at all times.
- Strong IT and written/verbal communication skills (e.g. report writing, briefing and presentation skills).
- Able to demonstrate a high level of confidentiality and professionalism in support of senior management activities
- Able to work under pressure and deliver results to tight deadlines
- Able to adapt positively to, and to drive change.
- Able to work under own initiative at a fast pace.
- Must be a team player, have a positive can-do attitude and be willing to go the extra mile to ensure success.